By the arrival of the Arabia at New York, on Saturday morning, we have three days latter advices from Europe. The London money market continued very quiet and easy. The Bank of England had made no alteration in the rate of interest, and from the tone of the money article in the London papers it is inferred that the expectation of the adoption of a lower rate is abantoned for the present. Notice had been issued that advances would be made by the Bank on Government securities during the shutting of the trans er books, till the 14th of April, at 3 per cent. In the stock exchange, loans had been negotiated as low as 2 per cent. Messrs. Baring Brothers notice the market as abundantly supplied at 21 to 3 per cent, and the newspapers place the current rates at 21 to 21 per cent. The commercial payments falling due on the 4th instant are stated to have been generally well met. Letter from Richmond. Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette. RICHMOND, March 22 .- Saturday was a busy and exciting day in the House of Delegates. At 10 o'clock, the House was called to order by the Speaker, and communications were received from the Senate, and Senate bills acted on, till the bour of 12 arrived. Previous to that hour, the member from Pittsylvania endeavored to pass by the Senate communications, to enable him to offer a resolution fixing an early day for an adjourtment. This was steadily resisted, the House being determined to proceed with the busine-s regularly, without which, little is accomplished. The Speaker announced that the rder of the day was the Senate bill, subscribing $800,000 to the Covington and Ohio Railroad Company. Mr. Caperton, the member from Monroe, prose, and stated that it had been his intention to have addressed the House at length on this bill, but as the session was drawing to a close, he deemed it advisable not to do so. Whereupon, immediately, the previous question was moved upon the bill, and being sustained, the Clerk began to call the name of Robert Alexander, the first on the list-who generally votes noand so on, till about 70 ayes were had, when it was evident that things looked rather daily increase in thy Holy Spirit more and squally for the Internal Improvement party of the House.

A motion was made to have the bell rung. and to call over the absenters. In the mean time, Mr. Heath, the member from Richmond, and the member from Giles, Mr. Allen, were sent for, both being sick; the latter came in with a blanket around him, Boisseau, Boreman, Brown of Petersburg, Card- having had a slight attack of the measles, which is just now quite prevalent in Richmond. The speaker stated that no members must come near the Clerk's table, to ascertain the state of the votes. 76 votes were had, and finally the bill received 78; whereupon, the result was announced. The bill passed, and the anti-improvement party looked blue.

Next came the Orange and Alexandria: another tight squeeze, receiving 77 votes, just enough : Mana-sas Gap next, 77 votes Next James River and Kanawha conversion, defeated, having received but 62 votes. It was then getting late, members hungry, and wanted their dinner. It was, however, determined to proceed. Next came the Alex andria, Loudoun and Hampshire, another tight squeeze. Bell rung again, and roll called over and over. Finally, after it had received 77 votes, a member tired of the devote, and it was announced that there was | Beach 76: Bill lost; although a member just came in to vote as the Cierk announced the result A reconsideration was at once moved, and a motion made to lay it on the table, but the House concluded to try it at once over again; ttewood, Gibson, Graham, Harper, Haskins, and, finally, it received 79 votes. Before closing this communication, I cannot omit to mention the valuable aid rendered to the Internal Improvement party, by Mr. Kaufman, of Frederick, one of the most modest, retiring and estimable members of the House, and most useful and efficient. Taking a broad and liberal view of matters, and being aware that he, as one of the friends of the Alexandria, Loudoun and Hampshire road, could not expect other people to support his road if he voted for that alone, like a bold man be took the responsigenerous and patriotic, and will sustain him for his liberal course on Saturday last.
